“ My beautiful Mamaw!! Some of my fondest memories were spent at her house! A place us grandkids could go & get just about anything we wanted .. within reason. Where rice & gravy, homemade dressing & the best little pieces of fried chicken were plentiful. No one made fudge or divinity like she did either! There was always plenty of that & Neopolitan ice cream anytime you went to Mamaw's house! She was a quiet lady unless you got to know her .. then she would open up & tell you stories of days gone by. Her strength was unmatched! She was always a hard worker & she loved her family fiercely!! I miss you so much already Mamaw but I'll see you soon!!

I only met you a couple of times; although, I was always hearing stories of "Mamaw". One time in particular stands out to me though. I was just a little thing who was desperately missing her best friend who had just recently moved away. That best friend happens to be your granddaughter, Christy! I went on a little job with my dad to Georgia and on our way back to Athens I begged him to take me to see Christy. He made a phone call to her parents to set up a meeting only to find out they were visiting with you. That didn't matter though. You told us to come on and visit Christy at your house. I'll never forget walking in and feeling embarrassed because I didn't know anyone there except Christy and her family. (You had a houseful!) Christy introduced us. "Mamaw" she said, "this is my best friend Kim. Kim, this is Mamaw." As everyone laughed at that, your reply was, "Just call me Mamaw. That's what all the kids call me." 😊 After that, I felt right at ease as Christy and I rushed outside to run and play. Thank you for your hospitality to me! Thank you for your love and kindness shown to your children and theirs. It shines through each of them as a tribute to who you were. I'm praying for your family! Much love to all! - Kim
