

Carolyn G. Doles

February 25, 2010

Mrs. Doles had been a resident of Ferriday since 1959 and a member of the Clayton Baptist Church. She was a graduate of Ouachita Parish High School and Louisiana Tech University. She was retired teacher, having taught in the Moorehouse, East Carroll, and Concordi Parish School systems. She also was a devoted pianist for forty years at Clayton Baptist Church. She was preceded in death by her parents, Columbus A. and Pauline Allen Green, and her husband, Leon Doles. She is survived by her two daughters: Jeanette D. Webb and husband, Jesse, of Kisatchie, LA and Diane Doles of Ferriday, LA; grandson: Austin David Burr of Ferriday, LA; two sisters-in-law: Mildred Lupo of Mandeville, LA and Peggy Drude of Reno, NV; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

CA

“ Jeanette and Diane,

I will not be able to attend your Mom's service, but will be keeping you in my thoughts and prayers. Your Mom holds a special place in the best memories of my life.

May God bless all of you with the peace and comfort that can only come from Him.

Love, Caroly

Carolyn Gray Amaden - February 24, 2010 at 09:01 AM