Carrie was born on July 3, 1969 in Ferriday, LA and passed away Friday, August 20, 2021 at Franklin Medical Center.

Besides her love for God, Carrie's love for her family superseded all else. She and David had a unique marriage which began with a CB radio check and have been happily inseparable for over 24 years. She never met a stranger evidenced by her multitude of friends. She loved her camping family and when anyone had a problem, they called her, because they knew "she could fix anything!" She loved Arkansas and Bluegrass music and everyone loved Carrie because of her positive attitude. She always kept everyone laughing even in her last days when she was in pain and very sick. She was a woman of God and a wonderful wife, mother, sister and friend. She will be greatly missed...

She was preceded in death by her parents, Bobbie Jean Metcalf Skipper and Luther Daniel Skipper, Jr.

She is survived by her husband, David Erwin King, Sr., one son, David Erwin King, Jr. (Bubba) and one sister, Bobbie Lynn Skipper Dunning, of Sicily Island, LA. Pallbearers will be Thomas Allen Barron, Frank Dunning Jr., Frank Dunning III, Kevin Skipper, Bob Brown, Ken King, Ted Kincannon and Philip Arthur. Honorary pallbearers are Charles Rushing, Billy Sanders, Chris Temple and Christopher Temple.
