

Daryle Ensminger

December 23, 1966 - December 19, 2017

No obituary found for this tribute.

Previous Events

Service

DEC 22. 11:00 AM (CT)

Comer Funeral Home
1103 EE Wallace Boulevard
Ferriday, LA 71334
(318) 757-4131
<http://www.funeralplan2.com>

Tribute Wall

DC

“ My family and I attended your parents church for many years. I have thought of you many times over the years. I'm sad to see of your passing but I know you're with the rest of your family at peace. I love you all

Dana Parker Chitwood - July 01, 2025 at 03:07 PM

TK

“ I'm very sorry for your loss. I was born in Baton Rouge, La. Lived there until I was 9 then we moved to East Texas. We went to Brother Bo and Mrs Jeannette church. She played the organ and could sing! Very sweet lady hate to hear of her passing. Last time we saw them Brother Jimmy was in Shreveport, La.my dad took us all there including my grandmother. We saw Mr. Bo and Mrs Jeanette backstage! We loved them all dearly.

Tracy Kinman - January 26, 2020 at 09:20 AM

MM

“ Michael McGraw .
I grew up with Daryle , we went to elementary school together , we stayed friends for at least 15 years all together . One of the last memories I have of him . We were racing his Chevy stepside off of lobdel, I went on trips with Daryle and his mom and dad , revivals . I practically lived with them , we would set up the mics and everything at his Dad's church off of Senic hwy . We would go to see his Uncle Jimmy . I remember one time we got in trouble for sneaking into Ryan airport to go see his uncle Jimmy Jet plane . His Dad Bo had to come and get us . I'll always remember you my friend .. your at peace now my friend . Tell my mom I said hey and your jennet . God bless you Daryle

Michael McGraw - April 25, 2019 at 12:00 AM

WC

“ Daryle Ensminger For You 💖 My “Chosen” Son 💖 Shining Star Since Birth 💖 Fate, Time and Struggles Darkened Your Path, So I Struggled With You 💖 Giving My Best With Love and Care 💖 But You and Jesus Chose Timing For You To Join Him, Your Mother, Brother and Sister In Heaven 💖 Your Final Home 💖 Tho I Weep Now, I Will Forever Hold You In My Heart Til We Meet Again 💖 R.I.P. 💖

Wanda Cedars - December 30, 2017 at 08:55 AM

MB

I miss both of you so much

Matt Beckner - December 29, 2019 at 05:05 AM

RL

“ Daryle Ensminger and I met around 1971 during a Jimmy Swaggart Camp Meeting Service at Broadmore High School in Baton Rouge. We quickly become fast friends at a very young age that would bloom and last for several decades. We had so many fun times together growing up. One memory that makes me smile to this day was when we arrived at Dog Patch USA (1974). He and I didn't wait for the trolley to take us down the mountain, we decided to run down the steep slop together. Breaking the parks first rule. Of course we were very young and not a care in the World! Once in the park we had a blast! And of course we we missed the last last return trolley back to home base. So special rangers had to leave their post and find us. Second time breaking the Parks rules.

December 2017.

So happy you are now reunited with your beautiful Mother, bother Darvin and sister Tammy.

I miss and love you my brother and best friend...Till we meet again.

Randy Looper (Loop)

Randall Looper - December 29, 2017 at 09:05 PM

FB

“ I met Daryle sometime in the mid to late 1980's in my 20's while working at his Uncle Jimmy's Ministry in Television. He always was upbeat & had one of the best laughs. We didn't become really good buds until after I left working there. We went on a couple of ski trips in Colorado/Park City Utah with the group we hung with here in Baton Rouge. He liked bringing his friends together. He was a season ticket holder & took me to a few Saints games in the mid 90's and never wanted any money for the ticket, he just enjoyed the company & the conversation. I know Daryle had a good heart and possibly was lacking a brother figure in his life after losing his brother when he was young. Thats why he apprecadited his "band of brothers" so much and was disappointed we all had drifted apart. I only spoke to him once in the last few years when he called after trying to get his life back on track. He sounded good then. I just regret not checking up on him from time to time after that conversation. My sympathy, thoughts, & prayers go to the Ensminger family & all those in the extended family. I wish I had known sooner to be at the services to pay my respects and find closer. - Rest in peace my good ole buddy, I hope you're now reunited with your Mom. You are missed. - Frank Bourgeois

Frank Bourgeois - December 26, 2017 at 06:13 PM

MH

“ I was so saddened to hear of your passing. I knew you struggled in your later years. I choose to remember the good times and all the memories of us as kids and teens. I hope you are now at peace. Michelle (Duty) Holland.

michelle holland - December 23, 2017 at 05:12 PM

BP

“ Daryl dated my sister for almost 10 years... He became part of our family like a brother... He worked for my dad at Exxon with us for many years doing electrical work... we water skied in his boat on False River... Tailgated at LSU Games... Drank some beer together many time laughing and joking... He captured the hearts of my brothers my mom dad and of course myself... and then the break up happen with Daryl and my sister... it was like we lost a brother... We drifted apart... It was like nobody was at the wheel to keep it all together... But I will always remember Daryl as a Brother... Peace Be With You My Friend... Say Hello To My Mom and Dad In Heaven for me... I Know They'll Be Sadden But Glad To See You Again...

Your Lone Lost Brother... Brett Payne

Brett Payne - December 23, 2017 at 10:38 AM

“ Saddened to hear of this news , of my child hood friend. Hearing of it after the service, I wish I could have said good bye. Daryle was a good friend growing up in Central in the 80s, we were always cutting up, playing and racing cars, chasing girls, what young teenage boys do. Daryle was always a loyal friend who always had my back. He stood in my wedding, and always supported me and my marriage to Lisa my wife. He would DJ some parties and such over the years, always for free, not wanting a thing from me but my friendship. I am sorry we grew apart, you are and forever be a good friend to me and my family. God Bless you Daryle.

Jay Payne - December 23, 2017 at 10:05 AM

MD

“ Daryl, That's how you spelled it when we were kids, best friends, and cohorts. Some of my earliest memories are you and I getting into trouble, listening to new music, and spending Sunday afternoons seeing what we could get into. Family drama separated us, I only saw you once again in life, I didn't know it would be the last time. I wish more than anything we could have sat down and talked about the old days. Miss you, loved you like my brother.

Michael Duty - December 23, 2017 at 10:01 AM

JL

“ Memory from years ago when you were young !!!you are God s child and we love you. God Bless your Uncle Jimmy my friend and cousin and Cousin Gabe. May God comfort the family at this time. Jerryleelewis and Judith Lewis.

Jerry Lee Lewis - December 22, 2017 at 11:24 AM

MB

I just got to see this post. Sir he thought the world of you. He was trying to get his voice and keyboard skills back to try to get to Memphis and hook up with you. I'm sorry I'm dumping on you I was just thinking about him. He even took me to your house in Ferriday. Thank you for listening. Even if you didn't.

Matt Beckner - December 29, 2019 at 05:15 AM