Jack Knapp officiating. Interment will be at Eva United Pentecostal Church Cemetery under the direction of Comer Funeral Home.

Duard Ray Paris was born on Thursday, April 15, 1937 to Wesley and Zadie Paris. Duard was a member of Eva United Pentecostal Church. He was a man who worked his whole life and knew what a hard day's work was. Ray was a man that loved to work with his hands in his yard and garden, from flowers to fruits and vegetables he had a green thumb. Above all he loved his family and his Lord. For those that knew him and loved him, Ray made a lasting impact with the love he gave.

Ray was preceded in death by his parents Wesley and Zadie Paris; his two brothers, Lloyd Paris and his wife Catherine, Donald Paris and his wife Pat; his sister Geneva Paris Sistrunk and her husband Riley; granddaughter Amy Matthews; two great grandchildren, James Norris Creel and Remi LaKaye Creel.

Those left to cherish his memory are, his wife of 59 years, Martha Paris of Eva, LA; son, Bobby Paris and his wife Tina of Venus, TX; daughter, Katie Ray of Monterey, LA; nine grandchildren, Miranda Elliot of Jena, LA; Shay Coleman Creel and her husband Ken of Harrisonburg, LA, Briston Paris of Madison, MS, Alison Paris Reyes and her husband Julio of Vidalia, LA, Jaycee Paris Duncan and her husband Riley of Harrisonburg, LA, Levi Timms, Cody Eans and his wife Shelley, Carley Timms, and Nikki Timms all of Venus, TX; seven great grandchildren, Emily, Sawyer, Kassie, Kaylen, Gia, Wyatt, and Stratton.

Those honoring Ray as pallbearers will be Lance Humphries, Riley Duncan, Mark Creed, Callie Howard, James Elliot, Ken Creel, Dewayne Paris, and Roy Hebron.

Honorary pallbearers will be Buddy Tiffie, Sandra Tiffie, and Delayne Bush. The family will receive friends at Eva United Pentecostal Church on Monday, October 17th from 5 PM until 8 PM.
