

Jack S. Aswell

July 9, 2009

Mr. Aswell was a life long resident of Eva and a member of the Eva Church of God. He was a veteran of World War II serving in the U. S. Navy. Mr. Aswell was a commercial fisherman. He was preceded in death by his parents, Jack E. and Lola C. Aswell, two sons, Bubba and Danny Glen Aswell, a daughter, Jackie May, a brother, Warren Aswell, and a sister, Margie Frith. He is survived by his son: Reggie Lyn Aswell and wife, Bobbie of Monterey, LA; daughter: Cynthia Aswell Charpentier of Monterey, LA; step children: Dennis Wayne Bass, Tony Bass, Richard Bass, Robert Bass, Linda Bass, and Juanita Alwell, all of Texas; brother: Willie Aswell of Jonesville, LA; sister: Inez Gilmer of Lake St. John, LA; Grandchildren: Melissa Adams, Michelle Hearst, Mitchell Aswell, Brandon Morgan, Aaron Charpentier, Jacob Charpentier, Alisa Domangue, Jaclyn Aswell, Danny Aswell, Jr., and Anthony Aswell; great grandchildren: Dylan Aswell, Sydney Smith, Wyatt Lockett, Shelton Hearst, and Preston Morgan; and special friends: Oscar Finley, James Lee Paul, Leroy Paul, Robbie Morace, Johnny Mackey, Ralph Hill, and James Miller Crouch. Pallbearers: Seab Mount, Darrell Brigman, Chancey Frith, Buddy Hedrick, W. L. Adams, Steve Hedrick, Gary Domangue, Sydney Book. Honorary pallbearers: Eugene Marshall, Bobby Frith, Jeff Boyette, Lee Charpentier, Chad Frith, Ronnie Joe Hedrick, Ted Harris, Ray Harris, Roy Finley, Price Gallup.