“ I pray God's peace on you and your family at this time of loss. Your mom, my friend, Ms. Jan was a very giving lady. Funny, wise, warm, compassionate, loving, kind, patient and more. She will be dearly missed. We can't understand why she had to go home early but we do know to those who have the hope of Christ Jesus, will see Ms. Jan again, laughing and praising Him! She was a precious, precious lady and it was an honor to have known her! Make your mama proud! God bless-Debra Rugeley/Trey Rugeley

“ Shane, Chris and Nae...words can't express our great sorrow for each one of you. Your mom is a 'hero' of mine (and Elmo) as Ms Karen said "one day we will see her in our heavenly home". Ms Jan blessed so many of us with her compassion and joy. She taught many children about the love of Christ Jesus and that legacy will be passed on to the next generation through each one of you." Pay it forward" children....with love from our hearts to yours, Sandy & Elmer Lewis “ Shane, Chris, Nae, and other family members of Ms Jan.....we will always love her and miss her as we look forward to seeing her in our Heavenly home.

She was my granddaughter, Hannah's first teacher, and our love and appreciation for her instantly became and remains immeasurable.

Words cannot do justice to express how we feel, but please accept our heartfelt sympathy as we share in your sorrow; praying for God's continued peace and comfort for you.

Love and prayers from the Karen Ryman family
