“ John was a very good hearted person...we worked together many years @ the plant in Center...He was my Supervisor....We lost touch when he moved back home... I will never forget him or his cooking...I still make the candied yams he was so good at making.. To his sons and family he loved you all....

“ John was out Neighbor in Texas. We could not have asked for a nicer neighbor. We miss him and his chicken and dumplings. Mario , Jason and families, he always talked about you all and he loved you so much. Minnie Sue, he talked about you every time he came over, shared your pickles with us. My thoughts and prayer for the family and friends.
