So much has changed since you and DD went home. I find comfort in knowing you are still with me in spirit. And I find great comfort in knowing that dad is with you. I always knew yall would'nt be apart very long. I'm working hard down here to make you proud. Things are actually going well for me in my Professional life. And this is in thanks to you and Grandpa and My Daddy. I just want yall to be proud of me. And I try and be a good person so I can once again, be back with yall and see you 3 again. I love you and man.... I Sure do miss yall.
