“ I send my deepest condolences to Renee's family. I know I am just one of many when I say that Renee was an important part of my life even though I never saw her face or heard her voice. Years ago, she spent hours in Vzones talking me, one keystroke at a time, through what I now know was major depression over being separated from my child. Words cannot express how much she meant to me. May you fly with the angels, Little Wing, you will always be missed and you were more important than you can ever know.

“ Kelly, I've been in constant thought of you since i got the call. My heart is so heavy for you and for the rest of Randi's loved ones. If only there were words that could be spoken or a gesture that could be done to help ease your hearts, I would surely do it. My prayer is that you can find comfort in knowing how happy you made her. Many go their lifetime without ever knowing the kind of love you gave her. What more could a person dream of, while here on earth? I came across this poem. Hope it can bring you, atleast, a moment's peace, Friend.

*Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings.
Sunward I've climbed and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun split clouds - and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of; wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sunlit silence. Hovering there
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air;
Up, up the long delirious burning blue
I've topped the windswept heights with easy grace,
Where never lark nor even eagle flew;
And while, with silent lifting mind I've trod
The high, untrespassed sanctity of space
Put out my hand and touched the face of God.*

“ May this bring a thought of her love for us all. She was very special to many and will be missed in countless ways.

Today a little butterfly flew by me.
I thought to myself where have you been little butterfly.
You come into this world as a cocoon all by yourself and blossom into this beautiful butterfly and fly off to see the world.
What you don't realize little butterfly as you flutter through your days is how you touch those around you in your soft gentle way.
You don't even realize the wonder and awe you create around you.
she fluttered her wings toward me as if she was waving good-by as she headed towards the horizon.
She looked very happy and content as she went on her way, as if to say to me "Don't worry I'll be okay".
I was sad to see her go for she had touched my heart in such a way that I knew my life would never be the same.
She had left an imprint of all the beauty life has to offer.
I knew each time I looked at another butterfly or horizon I would remember our moment in time when it was only her and I.
I knew I would be a better person all because this little butterfly flew by me one bright sunny day.

“ Kelly and family,
We are so sorry for your loss. Renee was one of those rare souls who made a difference to so many with a simple smile or kind word. She was an amazing woman and loved life in so many ways. I will never forget her infectious personality and optimistic outlook on life. We had some great times hanging out in SV. She will be dearly missed by so many who's lives she touched.

“ My deepest sympathies go out to Kelly and the rest of Renee's friends and family. Renee will always be remembered as a wonderful person with a beautiful soul. I met Renee in Seoul, Korea (1980) and was fortunate to have reconnected with her after 25 years. I am so glad that I got to see her in Las Vegas in 2009. Renee touched my life in many ways and brought back so many memories with the photos that she shared from our time in Korea. I will miss her posts on Facebook and am thankful that I had the opportunity to see her so happy with Kelly. May God bless you and comfort you in the days and months to come.

“ My prayer for you all. Grant, O Lord, to all who are bereaved the spirit of faith and courage, that they may have strength to meet the days to come with steadfastness and patience; not sorrowing as those without hope, but in thankful remembrance of thy great goodness in past years, and in the sure expectation of a joyful reunion with those they love; and this we ask in the Name of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Thinking of you in this time of great sorrow. I have wonderful memories of Renee as a true friend.

“ Harry and I are praying for all the family and friends devastated by Renee's death. May the Lord hold each of you close to His loving heart as He walks through the days ahead with each of you.
"Our gracious Father in Heaven, grant Renee your peace and may your light perpetual shine upon her. Amen"
